DOWN ON THE MIDDLEMEN

The Committee Investigating the Feasibility of Establishing Houses for Direct Sale of Mill Products, Report.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Charlotte, July 19.—The committe recently appoined by the Southern Cotton Spinners Association to visit the North with a view of ascertaining the feasibility of establishing houses for the direct sale of the Southern mill product, reported to the Board of Governors last night.

In the report the committee said: "Your Committee received information which proved beyond a doubt that there is no glut in the market and that the reason for the unusual decline in the prices offered for our product was brought about by inflated values, created in a large measure through the influence of dealers and consumers of cotton yarns, who purchased on speculation. "The committee is firmly of the opinion that there is nothing in the present condition of trade which would warrant or justify prices being sacrificed. This spring when trade opens, the demand will be such that prices will seek their normal position and this position be maintained.

DIRECT SELLING AGENCIES, OR CONCENTRATION OF BUSIEESS.

"Touching upon this point, the committee begs to advise that earnest consideration has been given to this subject, and this contemplated change has been investigated from a neutral standpoint.

"As a result there is no doubt in the minds of the committee, but that it is practicable for a selling agency to be formed, whereby, in time nearly the entire output of Southern yarn mills can be accomplished and conducted in such a manner as will prove more economical than the system at present in vogue.

"Your committee recommends to you the adopting of a selling agency plan, whereby the product of the Southern yarn mills can be sold direct, either through a commission house to be controlled by the mills interested or by the selection of a limited number of commission houses to handle their product.

"The committee further reccommends to your board of governors the appointing of a committee of three who shall, as soon as practicable,, visit each mill which manufacturers yarn for the market and secure their written co-operation to either of the above two plans.

"The committee would advise, that while no definite propositions have been made, still they were given assurance that if necessary a proposition would be forthcoming from responsible parties who would agree to take the selling agencies for any reasonable number or all of the Southern yarn mills."

The report was the unanimous report of the committee and was adopted by the board of governors.

A committee of three was decided on before adjournment who shall meet the hosiery yarn men at their meeting in Elizabeth City and invite them to become members of the Southern Cotton Spinners Association.

FOR THE FAIR.

The Sympathy and Co-operation of Every Citizen Desired.

In the heat of the campaign and the weather the people of Greensboro and Guilford county should not forget the efforts being made to give us a first-class and up-to-date fair. The association is hard at work raising money and arranging for the first fair, and the co-operation of every citizen is desired. It is only by united effort that anything can be accomplished.

It is hoped that "Citizen," "Taxpayer," "Constant Reader," "Justice," etc., will each lend a hand.

Mr. Pritchett for Surveyor.

Mr. S. S. Wiley, of Jamestown, was nominated by the Democratic county convention for surveyor, but not being a practical surveyor, he has resigned. The central executive committee places on the ticket in his place Mr. George W. Pritchett, of this city, who is a practical surveyor and who will make a most efficient officer.

After all that has been written and said about it, some white man will come to the polls to vote and find he is not registered.

THE DISPENSARY ELECTION.

The Resolution Adopted by the Central Democratic Executive Committee.

According to direction of the county convention, the Central Democratic Executive Committee has adopted the following resolution looking to holding the white primary on the dispensary question:

"Resolved, by the Central Democratic Executive Committee, that in order to hold the election on the dipensary question, this committee select in each eleetion precinct two white men of opposite views on the dispensary, when possible, as judges to hold said election. That said judges shall sit at the polling place, and whenever a white elector votes in the regular election for State, county and other officers, said white elector may, if he chooses, vote for or against the dispensary at the same time he votes in the regular election, but not otherwise.

"The said judges shall hold said election at the same time, place and during the same hours as the regular election on August 2d, 1900. After the polls close said judges shall count the votes for and against the dipensary, and make out and sign two statements of the vote cast for and against it, one of which shall be immediately sent to Z V. Taylor, secretary of this committee, and the other to the clerk of the Superior Court, where it will be open to public inspection.

"Before holding said election, the said judges shall take an oath before some one qualified to administer oaths to conduct said election fairly in accordance with this resolution, and to make proper and fair return thereof.

"As soon as the returns from all the precincts are sent in the Central Executive Committee shall meet and count the same and announce the result and report the same to our Senator and Representatives elect."

Outrages by Commissioners.

Charlotte Observer.

The State has rung with the outrage perpetrated in the case of Registrar Thompson, of Winston, who was arrested for refusing to register negroes not entitled to register and who was held to court by a United States commissioner in a bond of $2,000; and yet this is not nearly so flagrant a case of Federal interference in State affairs and of arbitrary action on the part of a United States official, as that reported in our Asheville correspondence yesterday as occurring in Jackson county. A Democratic registrar was arrested foe refusing to register three Indians and was dragged off to the county seat for trial, in the face of the provision of law that such trial should be before the nearest commissioner and there were three nearer than at Webster. A Republican lawyer hireling appeared for the prosecution and there were only two other lawyers in reach and they were just hurrying off to Asheville on important legal business. One of them, however, appeared before the "court," stated the facts and asked, in view of them, that the case be continued until the defendant could be represented by counsel and get his witnesses The "court" denied the request, saying that the defendant needed no counsel and no witnesses and, while the attorney was still talking, proceeded to swear the witnesses for the prosecution. The defendant registrar thereupon waived examination and was bound over to court in the sum of $2,000.

What is the Population of Greensboro?

It will probably be several weeks before the result of the recent census of Greensboro will be made known, and during this time the Telegram's guessing contest as to the population of the city will be kept open. The person making the nearest correct guess will receive a year's subscription to the Telegram free.

From the guesses already turned in, it is evident that there is a wide difference of opinion as to the population of Greensboro. For instance, the highest guess is three times as great as the lowest. People have guessed everything between these figures.

On August 2nd, thre will be voted for, the State, county and township officers, the constitutional amendment and the dispensary. The registration books close Saturday July 21st at sunset, leaving only two more days for registration.

A GREAT CONSPIRACY

ALL OFFICIAL CHINA IS IN IT.

TEMPORIZING WITH THE POWERS.

All the Viceroys and Foreign Ministers, including Li Hung Chang and Wu Ting Fang, Are in Perfect Concert With the Chinese Government, Which is Actually Directing the Insurrection, and is Temporizing With the Powers in Order to Gain Time—Tien-Tsin Said to be Burned to the Ground—War in Manchuria.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, July 19.—Shanghai dispatches lead the Department of State to look upon the actions and to receive the statements of Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese Minister at Washington, with a great deal of suspicion. These dispatches indicate that the Chinese government is not only identified with the Boxer movement, but is directing it. The dispatches say that all the vice-roys in China, including Li Hung Chang and all the ministers abroad, which includes Wu Ting Fang, and are in perfect accord and in league with the movements, and receive and obey secret directions from Pekin. They are endeavoring to temporize with the powers in order to obtain more time for the Chinese government to perfect its defenses, notably at Woosung and the river forts at Shanghai.

TIEN-TSIN BURNED.

London, July 19.—Tien-Tsin has been burned to the ground. The allies, realizing that no advance could be made towards Pekin before September, were determined to take swift vengeance for the massacre of the ministers.

A dispatch to a news agency from Shanghai says that the foreign women and children have been requested to leave the river ports. Rioting has occurred on Payang Lake, near Kingiang, in which several missionaries were killed, and chapels burned.

THE BURNING SEEMINGLY CONFIRMED.

Washington, July 19.—The Chinese Minister Wu, was aware of the determination of the powers to totally destroy Tien-Tsin. He appealed to Secretary Hay not to acquiesce in the destruction of the walled city which would take a hundred yeas to rebuild.

RUSSIA AND PRINCE TUAN CO-OPERATING.

New York, July 19.—A special to the Journal from Shanghai says that Russia is secretly negotiating with Prince Tuan, and that the next step is to invite the Czar to restore order in China. It will be represented to Christendom that the Empress Dowager herself actually ordered the slaughter of the envoys. When Russia invades China her forces will be joined by Prince Tuan's troops.

There is now but little doubt but that Li Hung Chang is also acting in concert with Prince Tuan.

REPORT OF THE MASSACRE CONTRADICTED.

Brussels, July 19.—The foreign office announced this morning that there were strong reasons for believing the ministers were safe in Pekin. A telegram received from Cartier, the Belgian diplomatic agent in Shanghai, says advices have been received that confirm the report that all Europeans are safe in Prince Ching's palace. The report of the massacre is contradicted.

IN RUSSIA'S TERRITORY.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—Certain parts of the Amoor territory, comprising the first division of the Khabarovek district, the towns of Blagovestchensk, Khabarovek, Nikoldl, Ussuri and Vladivistock have been declared in a state of war from July 17.

WHO IS THIS GENTLEMEN?

Hong Kong, July 19.—Lieu Yee, a black flag chief whose forces probably number 15,000, has obtained permission to enlist seven thousand more men.

ANOTHER REPORT OF SAFETY.

Paris, July 19.—An official telegram from Shanghai dated the 18, states that according to the governor of Shantung the foreign ministers and families at Pekin are safe and sound, but their danger is still very great. The Viceroy, according to this dispatch informed the consular corps that he had telegraphed to Pekin urging the protection of the foreign legations.

THE CHINESE LOSS.

London, July 19.—A dispatch received from Shanghai today says the loss of the Chinese in the Tien-Tsin fight was over 3.000.

It is understood that Lieutenant General Sir Francis Grenfell is to have command of the British forces in China.

FEARS THE CONFIRMATION OF NEWS.

London, July 19.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says Russia's anxiety to minimize the alarming nature of the news from Manchuria is dictated by the fears the injury of the confirmation of such news might cause in the matter of arrangements alleged to have been made in the United States for money to complete the Manchurian Railway.

The Oregon to Go to Taku.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, July 19.—The Navy Department this morning received a dispatch from Capt. Willie stating that the Oregon arrived at Kure on the 18th and expected to dock on the 19th. Secretary Long telegraphed congratulations and ordered the captain, if the safety of the Oregon, permitted, to patch her and proceed to Taku.

Eleven Deaths Before Eight O'clock.

By Wire to the Telegram.

New York, July 19.—Despite the cool wave, there were eleven deaths by heat up to 8 o'clock this morning.

Appointment Confirmed.

By Wire to the Telegram

Rome, July 19.—Archbishop Keane has been made Archbishop of Dubuque by a papal decree confirming his appointment.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

Those Who Will Have Charge of the Democratic Rally.

The following is a list of the committee selected to take charge of the grand Democratic rally to be held July 24th:

Reception Committee—Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, chairman; Col. Jno. A. Barringer, Col. Jas. T. Morehead, Mr. W. R. Land, Dr. G. A. Mebane.

Committee on Lemonade—Jas. H. West, chairman.

Committee on Seats and Speakers Stand—Mr. F. A. Brooks, charman; Mr. J. M. Cunningham, Mr. Lee T. Wharton, Mr. E. E. Bain, H. C. Berger.

Committee on Decoration—Mrs. W. E. Allen, chairman; Mrs. Clark Porter, Mr. T. A. Lyon, Mr. Jno. W. King, Mr. E. J. Stafford.

A Strange Inscription on a Monument.

A traveling man tells the Telegram of a rather peculiar inscription on a monument which was seen on a recent visit to Vicksburg, Miss. The monument is a large and imposing shaft, the following words forming the inscription:

"Erected by a grateful community to the memory of Dr. Hugh Bodley, murdered by the gamblers on July 5th, 1835, while defending the morals of Vicksburg."

The monument is located in the public square and is observed by thousands of visitors.

IN WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

The Democratic Speakers Covered Themselves With Glory.

A crowd of 200 or more people attended the joint debate between the county candidates at Summer's Mill, in Washington township, yesterday. The Democratic candidates for the Legislature surpassed their previous effort, all making most telling and effective speeches.

Mr. Starbuck delivered himself of a tirade against the Southern Railway, which he intimated would control Gen. Glenn's official actions. Gen. Glenn denounced this as a mean and cowardly attack, and charged that, when in the Legislature, Mr. Starbuck had sold out to the Southern, giving the company his vote and influence whenever it was needed. This charge was not denied by Mr. Starbuck or any of his friends.

The dispensary is a veritable nightmare to Mr. Douglas, who is beginning to show the effect of the heavy burden he is carrying on his mind. His record on this one question alone is so crooked that Messrs. Whitaker and Roberson have no trouble in annihilating him.

The Democrats in Washington township are in good condition and will give and increased majority this year.

RECONSTRUCTION ACTS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Col. Morehead Shows That Congress Refused to allow These Acts to Come Before the Supreme Court—The States Which Gave Grant Overwhelming Majorities Voted Down Negro Suffrage by Even Greater Majorities.

Col. Morehead asks the Telegram to call attention to the fact that all the northern States, without exception, except of one New England State, in 1867 and 1868, voted by overwhelming majorities, against negro suffrage—that States which gave Gen. Grant immense majorities at the same time voted against negro suffrage by still larger majorities.

He also asks us to call attention to the fact that every act of congress passed to humiliate and punish the South which has been tested in the Supreme Court of the United States, has been declared unconstitutional, and that one case, the McNadle case, which was instituted to test the reconstruction acts, was appealed to the United States Supreme Court and Congress, fearing and believing that that act would be adjudged unconstitutional, repealed the law permitting the appeal, so that the Supreme Court could not pass on it.

If the Supreme Court had held the reconstruction act unconstitutional, which it certainly would have done, the 14th and 15th amendments would be a nullity, as they were ratified by legislatures elected under the reconstruction act.

MAGISTRATES AND CONSTABLES.

The Nominations Made by the Precinct Committees in Morehead and Gilmer.

The precinct committees of Gilmer and Morehead townships have nominated the following for magistrates and constables:

Gilmer Township—J. E. McKnight, A. P. Eckel, G. T. Glascock, J. R. Pearce, J. M. Wolfe, Julius Sharp and W. A. Alexander for magistrates, and David Scott for constable.

Morehead Township—W. E. Schenck, S. S. Mitchell, D. A. Bowles, John W. Regan and W. N. Kirkman for magistrates, and John Hegwood for constable.

The county convention left these nominations to the precinct committees in order to save time and trouble.

Oak Ridge Institute.

Elsewhere we print the announcement of Oak Ridge Institute. This is one of the best and most well known schools of the State. Professors Holt have built up an institution of wide influence and usefulness and their continued patronge not only from all over North Carolina, but from other states as well testify to this fact.

Call to Democrats.

The precinct committees of precints No. 1, 2, 3 and 4, and other Democrats who are willing to assist in some important work, are requested to meet at headquarters tonight at 8:30 o'clock sharp. A. M SCALES, Chmn.

REACHING FEVER HEAT.

The November Election Will be a Tame Affair in Comparison—Governor Russell Still Thinks the Amendment Will Carry The Railroads Before Judge Simonton.

Special Correspondence of the Telegram.

Raleigh, July 19.—Excitement and interest in the State campaign are reaching fever heat. The election is exactly two weeks away. After it is over there will be a reaction after the strain of the spring and summer, and it will be found that the November election is very tame by comparison.

Two weeks ago Gov. Russell's closest personal friends, who said they spoke for him, said he would neither register nor vote in the State election; that if he voted in favor of the constitutional amendment disfranchising illiterate negroes the negroes might accuse him of ingratitude towards them who had in past times given him their vote and support. The governor has always said he was confident that the people would ratify the amendment at the polls August 2, and that it was the worst possible policy for the North Carolina Republicans to have arrayed themselves against the amendment. The governor has changed his mind as to registering and voting and will do both. He makes Brunswick county his home as his farm is there. Heretofore he has voted at Wilmington. He has not changed his view as to the certain ratification of the amendment.

Under the terms of its adjournment last month the legislature will re-convene next Wednesday. Speaker Connor is of the opinion that it will transact no business but will merely meet and adjourn sine die.

The attorney general of the State was here yesterday in conference with the Populist State chairman, Senator Butler. He declined to reveal his mission. John W. Graham, of Hillsboro, was present as counsel for Senator Butler. The Populists and Republicans are prepared to at any moment juggle their State tickets. Those up now are merely drawing tickets; that is, they can be handled at will.

To illustrate the height to which feeling runs in this unprecedented campaign, an incident in this county this week can be given. At a place known as Edward's Store, the fusionist candidates were to speak. Edwards' wife, a two-colored Democrat, was in charge of the place, Edwards being absent. She told them they could not speak there. They moved on and went to a grove a mile away.

The Southern, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line railway attorneys are today at Flat Rock, Henderson county, to see Judge Simonton. They left here yesterday afternoon, after having appeared before the corporation commission and filed a paper which set forth that the matter of the correctness and legality of the increase of $10,000 in the assessment of those systems this year by the commissioner is the same as is involved in the suits in equity in the U. S. circuit court now pending, and that they do not think they are called upon to go into the matter anew at this time. The roads refer the commissioner to the bills of complaint and Judge Simonton's injunction order in 1898. One of the attorneys who is at Flat Rock said as he was leaving here that they desired to see what arrangements could be made.

Guilford County Institute.

A County Institute for the white teachers of Guilford county will be held at the court house, in Greensboro, beginning Monday, August 6th, and continuing through the week. This institute will be conducted by Dr. W. T. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute, assisted by an able corps of instructors. No Institute having been held in Guilford county for the past two years it is earnestly hoped that every white teacher in the public schools, as well as all other teachers and friends of public schools, will be present, and thus make the Institute a grand success. Attendance on the County Institute by public school teachers is not left to their discretion. They must attend if they would teach. See section 19, School Law, 1899.

Nothing will be left undone to make the meetings of the Institute both profitable and pleasant. Arrangements will be made to find suitable boarding places, at cheap rates, for ladies who may not be able to go home at night.

As Outsiders See It.

Biblical Recorder.

The question of maintaining the dispensary at Greensboro will come up August 2, and a heated campaign is being waged in that city. Our sympathies are with the advocates of the lesser evil, with those who would extract the fangs of the serpent.

Durham Herald.

Greensboro is again being stirred by the dispensary question. While much may be said against the dispensary, nothing can be said in favor of the saloons.

Salisbury Truth-Index

But the main argument is that it lessens drunkenness and consequent misery, and elevates morality. All the ministers of Greensboro and the women are doing all they can to prevent the re-establishment of the saloons. We sincerely hope that they may be successful.

This is a matter about which our people should think and as soon as practicable, see that a dispensary is established here.

Our Excursionists a Good Looking Crowd.

Winston Journal.

The Presbyterian Sunday school excursion from Greensboro came in this morning at 9:20 o'clock. There were five well filled passenger cars and a refreshment car. A better looking crowd of excursionists we have not seen here this year. Eight street cars were waiting at the depot to carry them out to Nissen Park and we learn that six hundred street car tickets had been furnished the excursionists for their fare and most of them went out to the park at which place and looking over the city, we have no donbt they passed a very pleasant day.

GUILFORD COUNTY

AND THE

GREENSBORO DISPENSARY.

Let the People Have the Truth and Nothing But the Truth.

FIVE FALSEHOODS NAILED.

There have been circulated in the county of Guilford to the prejudice of the Greensboro Dispensary five flagrant falsehoods which have been manufactured out and out without any basis of truth whatsoever, as will be seen from the following:

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 1.

It has gone out from Greensboro that the reason why the school term in Greensboro is longer than it is in the county is because Greensboro gets the larger share of the profits from the dispensary.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 1 NAILED.

The public schools of Greensboro are supported by special taxation which the people of Greensboro impose upon themselves, and this falsehood was inexcusable as will be seen from the following:

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 12, 1900.

This is to state that the school term in Greensboro during the last twelve months was the same as for the year preceding, and that the county school term was three weeks longer than for the preceding year.

[Signed] JESSE R. WHARTON,
County Superintendent of Public Schools.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 2.

It has gone out from Greensboro that the profits to the county from the dispensary are to a large extent consumed in the prosecutions of violations of the dispensary law and that the solicitor said so.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 2 NAILED.

The solicitor denies that he made any such statement, and an itemized statement of court costs taken from the county records by Jno. N. Wilson, with the assistance of Jno. J. Nelson, Clerk of the Superior Court, shows that the net cost to the county of prosecutions for illicit selling has been no greater under the dispensary system than it was under the saloon system.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 3.

It has gone out from Greensboro that the three weeks term of criminal court in June was occasioned by the increase in crime resulting from the dispensary.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 3 NAILED.

On account of smallpox in the county jail there was no criminal court in February last, and the criminal docket had not been touched since December. This is the explanation of the three weeks term and everybody knows it. Less than two days of this three weeks term were devoted to dispensary cases, and those who started this falsehood knew that fact also.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 4.

It has gone out from Greensboro that the members of the dispensary board are getting rich at the expense of the dispensary.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 4 NAILED.

This is not only a falsehood, but a slander upon the good name of honorable men. Only two men have anything to do with the money or funds of the dispensary. One is the manager, J. C. Kennett, who is under $1000.00 bond, and who pays over to the treasurer each Monday morning the proceeds of sales of the preceding week and takes his receipt therefor; the other is Treasurer E. J. Stafford, who is under a $5000.00 bond, and who keeps the dispensary funds on deposit subject to his check in any bank that he may elect, all of which the originators of this falsehood knew or could have known if they had taken the pains to investigate.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 5.

It has gone out from Greensboro that this dispensary election is a political trick. Democrats are told that it is a Republican trick and Republicans are told that it is a Democratic trick, and both parties are being urged to vote against it.

FALSEHOOD NUMBER 5 NAILED.

Many of the most influential preachers in Guilford county are using their influence in favor of the dispensary and many of them are advocating it from their pulpits. Everybody knows that the preachers would not touch this question if there was any politics in it.

Among the preachers of the county who are advising the people to vote for the dispensary are Jas. R. Jones, of Guilford College; J. M. Hilliard, J. R. Scroggs, W. R. Lowdermilk and others, of High Point; Egbert W. Smith, Livingston Johnston, T. E. Wagg, F. H. Wood, T. M. Johnson, J. R. Hutton, J. D. Miller and others, of Greensboro; W. A. Bunch, J. McL. Seabrook, R. S. Webb, T. H. Pegram, R. F. Bryant and other ministers in the county. These preachers are not men to be caught advocating a political trick. And further, if there were any political trick in this dispensary matter you would not find leading Democrats and Republicans lined up together in favor of the dispensary. S. W. H. Smith, Dr. M. F. Fox, Walter L. McLean, W. L. Lindsay, J. W. Paisly, Dr. McDaniels, Dr. C. S. Gilmer, J. C. Cannon, J. A. Rankin, J. L. Hendrix. D. H. Coble, A.C.Boon, J. Sockwell, C.A.Tickle, J.R.McCulloch, W.O. Donnell, J. W. Scott, W. E. Bevill, C. H. Ireland and J. M. Hendrix are some of the leading Democrats of the county who are on the side of the dispensary. Jas. Addison Hodgin, Jeremiah Cox, C. P. Frazier, Joshua Murrow, W. L. Spencer, C. A. Reynolds and Andrew Murrow are among the leading Republicans of the county who are on the side of the dispensary. Everybody knows that these Democrats and Republicans would not be united on this question and would not be taking a united stand for the dispensary if there were any political trick about it.

IN CONCLUSION:

The reader of the above will find set forth herein all the argument and all the evidence that he has heard or seen advanced against the dispensary, and that this entire framework of anti-dispensary argument and evidence rests upon nothing but misrepresentation and falsehood.

The people of Guilford county ought to thoroughly understand and to remember that the election to be held in August on the question of dispensary or no dispensary was forced upon the county by the anti-dispensary people and against the protests of the advocates of the dispensary. The people of the county should remember also that the anti-dispensaryites have been out-voted and out-numbered time and again in Greensboro, and seeing that they were in a hopeless minority, they first asked that the negro be allowed to help them vote back saloons upon the white people of Greensboro, and failing in this, they insult the intelligence and morality of the white people of Guilford county by appealing to them to vote back saloons over the heads of the white people of Greensboro. They have forced this question upon the unwilling people of the county; but now that it has been done the white men of Greensboro who have voted out the saloons by the establishment of the dispensary appeal to the white men of Guilford county, irrespective of party, to get at the facts in the case and to say by their votes on August 2d that saloons shall not be re-opened in Greensboro against the wishes of a majority of the white voters of Greensboro.

Endorsement of the Greensboro Dispensary by Representative Citizens:

In a mass meeting of the citizens of Greensboro held in the Court House on Thursday, June 28th, 1900, the following citizens and business firms endorsed the dispensary over their signatures:

THE BODY OF DEATH.

The circular letter of Chairman Simmons to President McKinley, which we published in full yesterday, is an interesting document. It is a true, and therefore just, arraignment of Republican politics in North Carolina. Such a statement ought to make an impression upon the country at large as has not yet been made. The outside people ought to know what North Carolina is made to stand in the name of the government of the United States. Not that we are not determined to take care of ourselves, or that we expect any outside help. But we do not like to be misjudged. Of course this letter will have no effect upon Mr. McKinley. Any impression that it might make upon his mind will be neutralized by the false representations that will go up to him from his politician office holders. We don't expect anything. Thank God, the real people of North Carolina are not so helpless as they have been in years past and they are determined to take care of themselves, whether they are afforded any protection by the federal government or not

The South is accused of not being loyal to the Union. It is loyal. It is the most loyal section of the entire country, simply because it requires more to be loyal in the South than anywhere else. By the very process which Mr. Simmons describes the United States goverenment still treats this section as a conquered province, fit only to be humiliated and preyed upon. The United States today appears in the South as a petty persecutor of our people. With the whole Federal patronage given over to inferior white politicians and negroes, who seek every opportunity to insult and browbeat and humiliate, unrebuked by the Government, is it any wonder that the general government should be looked upon more as an enemy than as a friend? But in spite of the fact that the government in Republican hands lends its prestige if not its positive encouragement to such work as Mr. Simmons describes, the South is loyal, and loves the government which her sons, more than any others, had a hand in building.

Talk about silver and the bugaboo of imperialism—what is so important to the South as being delivered from this body of death? And the success of the National Democratic party is the only thing that can deliver us.

ONLY CHARACTERISTIC.

Mr. W. S. Ward, State Senator from the second district, writes to Mr. Claude Kitchin as follows:

On a Sunday afternoon in February, 1899, a few days after the legislature had passed the bill submitting the proposed amendment, Dr. Cyrus Thomson said to me, while standing ing on the south end of the capitol, that he had advised the Populists in the legislature to vote for the amendment and he thought it was the best thing for the civilization of the State, and thought the Populist party would support it at the polls. He said he would support it himself, and then qualified by saying: "That is, I think now I will." If you want this sworn to, send it back to me, but Dr. Thompson will not deny it.

Mr. E. Y. Webb, chairman of the Cleveland county executive committee says that this was shown to Dr. Thompson at Shelby, and he was asked if it were true, and replied yes, but at that time he had not investigated the amendment. This is nothing new in Populist politicians, in fact it is characteristic of them. It is one of the features that make them so everlastingly despicable. At the time Thompson made this statement he was expecting Democrats to bid for him. It was the same with Butler and all the lesser lights. They pretended to favor the amendment or were undecided, wholly for commercial purposes. They decided quickly enough against the amendment when they found that Democrats proposed nothing. The amendment will clean up this crowd because they cannot lead any number of white people. We confess that this is to us the most pleasing feature of the amendment's proposed work.

FROM CHINA.

The news that our government has discovered a giant conspiracy of all official China is no doubt true. We have for some time believed that the Chinese were hiding something. If this be true it makes two things clear—that the reports that the ministers were alive July 9 were pure Chinese fabrications, and that every foreigner at Pekin is dead, and secondly, that the powers may have no further scruples or hesitancy about the treatment of the situation. These acts make a simple and unequivocal declaration of war necessary, and China must pay the full penalty without the excuse that the government was trying to prevent the outrages.

The news that Tien-Tsin was burned to the ground, if true, may have a good effect. The further news that Russia and Tuan, the Boxer leader, have an understanding, is hard to believe, but is something like Russian diplomacy.

We are longing with griping earnestness for the advance into North Carolina of Cyclone Davis, of Texas. All such impor ed fusion flim-flammers help the cause of white supremacy.

A Will Contest.

Mrs. Margaret Plant contends that her husband, Henry B. Plant, was not of sound mind when he made the will that bequeathed his fortune of $10,000,000 to a child unborn. It was not to an infant whom he hoped to hold in his arms in this life that the multi-millionaire left his wealth. That would be a sentiment not wholly strange. He decreed that all that he had worked and struggled, prayed and battled for for seventy vigorous years should be the property of his eldest great grandchild, the first born of a grandchild who is now but four years old.

The unborn legatee will have none of Mrs. Plant's blood in his veins. She has never borne Mr. Plant any children. He left one son by a former marriage, Morton F. Plant. It is the son of this Morton F. Plant, a mere toddler of four summers, upon whom will devolve the paternity of the child who is to enjoy the Plant multi-millions.

In 1872 Mr. Plant married Miss Allen Blackstone, a daughter of the Hon. James Blackstone. Mrs. Plant died in 1881. In 1873 he married the beauty and belle, Miss Margaret Josephine Loughman, the only daughter of Martin Loughman. He was thirty years older than his bride. Neither seemed conscious of the disparity. They were pointed to as a "model couple."

Mrs. Margaret Josephine Plant lives in the old Plant mansion in New York. She is a brunette, with dark eyes of unusual beauty. She dresses with an unobstrusive elegance that made an admirer exclaim, "She wears Worth's patent." Her air is womanly and gracious; her friends call her "lovable." Mr. Plant's devotion to this, his second wife, so many years his junior, has passed into a proverb.

Mrs. Plant states that her husband died on June 23, 1899, at eighty years of age. Three days before his death he went to his country seat at Bradford, Conn., where he died. A few hours before his death he added a third codicil to his will. It was this codocil which nullified all the beneficent provisions of the will and tied up the testator's fortune of $10,000 000 in a trust for the unborn child of his four-year-old grandchild.

The codicil provides for an income for the widow and son of $30,000 a year each. The son wife's would receive $15,000 a year so long as she remained his son's wife.

Not Much New.

Hero of Alexandria, in his "Pneumatics," describes in the third century before Christ several applications of steam as a motive power, some of which have formed the subject of patents within the last 100 years. In particular, his "Aeolopile" is on very much the same prnciple as the steam turbine, which is the most recent development of the marine engine, for in both the steam acts directly upon fans, instead of through a piston. In glass ornamentations several processes known in Roman times, and subsequently lost, have been revived under patents within this century, particularly the art of incrustation, rediscovered in France by a manufacturer who used it in executing medallions of the first Napoleon. The method of fixing paintings by an application of glass was also known to the Romans, and has been repatented since 1800. In excavating the Roman town Calleoa, in England, recently, an iron screw of undoubted Roman origin was found with thread and point similar to a well-known modern patent.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. ### A Substitute for Iron.

Experiments in the Sibley laboratory at Cornell University haveshown that an alloy of aluminium and zinc possesses remarkable qualities. It is white and takes a fine finish, and is equal in strength to cast-iron, but superior in elasticity. On the other hand, it melts at so low a temperature that it can be liquified in a ladel over an open fire. In the liquid form it fills a mould, running into all the small parts much better than brass. but it is more brittle than brass. Its use does away with the foundry furnace, and its technical advantages are obvious. The strength of this metal is 50,000 pounds per square inch.

DR. WORTH THREATENED.

Has a House and Hospital at Kiang Yin and was Ordered by the Natives to Leave and His Home was Burned—Great Danger to all Foreigners in the Great Yang Tse Valley—Flocking to Shanghai.

San Francisco Dispatch, 16th.

Rev. S. I. Woodridge, a Presbyterian missionary, who has been at Chin Kiang, on the Yang-tse river for the past 15 years, arrived on the Coptic today from Shanghai with his wife and six children on furlough. He expects to return to Chin-Kiang when the present troubles are over. Cain-Kiang is known as the Chicago of China, and is 150 miles up the Yang-tse river from Shanghai at the entrance of the great canal. The population of the city, consists of 300,000 Chinese and about 6,000 foreigners. The city, as well as all other cities and towns along the Yang-tse, were greatly excited and on the verge of an uprising when Mr. Woodbridge left Chin-Kiang on June 19. In fact a day had been fixed for the destruction of all property owned by foreigners, and the murder of foreigners themselves, and Mr. Woodridge believes that by this time a terrible fate has met those foreigners who failed to heed this warning and flee from the impending massacre.

"It would be difficult to estimate the number of foreigners along the Yang-tse river he said today. "There are literally thousands of missionaries in the great valley and further in the interior. Nearly every one of them has a family, and I hope the missionaries have at least sent their families to Shanghai. Just before I left Chin-Kiang I telegraphed 200 Presbyterian missionaries to wait no longer, but to get down to Shanghai as quickly as possible.

"The fate of all in the Yang-tse country hangs on the words of two viceroys. One of them is Chen Chin Tung, at Hanknow, the other is Liu Kun Yih, at Nankin. If these men waver an uprising of terrible proportions will result among the millions in that thickly-populated portion of the empire.

"Up to the time I left Chin-Kiang no outrages had been committed, but the Chinese were becoming ugly, those in cities being more worked up than those in the outlying districts. All the immense traffic on the Yang-tse had become paralyzed and there was every indication that the foreigners were about to be attacked. There is a place near Chin-Kiang where about a thousand foreigners usually spend this part of the year to escape the heat, but nobody had any intention of going there when I left.

"Dr. Worth, grandson of ex-Governor Worth of North Carolina, has a house and hospital at Kiang-Yin, and was ordered by the natives to leave. His property was to be consigned to the flames. If he stayed he was to be murdered. All through the Yang-tse valley, from Shanghai up to and beyond Chin-Kiang, these orders had been given to foreigners and a day had been fixed for carrying out the threat. I do not know what the date was, but there is not the slightest doubt that the Chinese will do as they threaten in these things.

"American Consul Martin telegraphed for a gun-boat just before I left for Chin-Kiang, but it is not likely that one could be sent, as all had gone to Taku. This leaves the situation very bad at Chin-Kiang. It is a great central point where 50,000,000 people pass every year. There and some distance further up the Yang-tse salt smugglers do as much as please. Salt is monopolized by the government and the stealing of it by the natives cannot be prevented, the Chinese cutting up the officials who are sent to arrest them. This has given rise to so much trouble that hordes of Chinese in that district have become enemies of the government and naturally may be expected to join the Boxers. They oppose foreigners, and if an opportunity arises, millions of Chinese along the Yang-tse may be depended upon to murder and pillage.

"Shanghai, the greatest port in China, is by no means safe. The protection there is entirely inadequate. Hundreds of young men, especially Americans, were forming themselves into volunteer companies when I left Shanghai for protection, but I fear that hundreds will not be able to get there.

"Considering the immense hordes in China, who have been becoming more and more restless, the outlook cannot be considered too seriously. I heartily concur with the request sent to this government by missionaries at Shanghai imploring immediate aid."

Mrs. J. S. McCubbins, of Salisbury, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. R. Harry.

He Was Once a Waif.

From street waif to Governor—that is the story of John G. Brady. As a boy he roamed the streets of New York, until the Children's Aid Society picked him up and sent him out west "to grow up with the country." He was adopted by a good family, who, though poor, sent him to the district school, where he got a taste for education, and later worked his way through Yale College. Then he went to New York, entered the Union Theological Seminary, was graduated and became a Presbyterian minister. He decided to do missionary work in the west and went to Colorado and Idaho an then to Texas. Finally he settled in Alaska, where he found a wide field. He plunged into the work of making the country better in a business and moral way, and went into politics so that he could do more for the people. To-day he is the Governor of that immense and little known territory and the head of the Presbyterian Church affairs in our great Northwestern possessions. He is only one more example of what an American boy with grit and pluck has a chance to do.

KENTUCKY CONSPIRACY TRIAL.

MURDER CASE GROWING STRONGER.

"Caleb Powers Told Me That he and Others Were Collecting a Large Body of Armed Men"—Each Leader Furnished From 50 to 200 Men—Could Kill Goebel With Nitro-Glycerine.

Georgetown, Ky., July 18.—In the Caleb Powers trial today some of the strongest evidence of a conspiracy yet produced by the commonwealth, was gleaned from the testimony of John A. Black, a friend of Powers, a strong Republican and a Barboursville banker of high standing, who in substance said:

"Caleb Powers told me, January 2d, that he and others were collecting a large body of armed men to go to Frankfort to assert their rights and to intimidate the legislature. I remonstrated with him and told him his plan would prejudice our case before the people. He told me that Taylor, Charles Finley and other Republican leaders at Frankfort advised the course and he would carry it out.

"I went to the Anderson Hotel conference, January 23d, and Powers, Finley, W. W. Sawyer and possibly John Powers were present, and the sending of armed men to Frankfort was discussed. Charles Finley drew a check on my bank in favor of C. P. Atmore, general passenger agent of the L. & N. Railroad, for $1,000, but as I had promised to honor his check for not over $700, I declined to pay the check until I consulted Powers, who said to send it back without payment. Some time afterwards, however, the check came back and I paid it."

He produced the check and it was filed as evidence.

On cross-examination he said:

"Charles Finley said at the conference that the armed men were to be used to influence the legislature and to exercise their right of petition to the legislature, but before that Powers had told me they were intended to influence the legislature and in a general way to threaten Goebel and other legislators. Finley said they would control the men and prevent them from drinking and firing off their guns."

W. H. Culton, indicted as one of the co-conspirators, was put on the stand, but the defense objected to him testifying at all. The jury was sent out and a long argument indulged in as to the right of the commonwealth to introduce him.

Finally at the afternoon session, Judge Cantrill decided that the statutes and authorities cited permitted the introduction of Culton as a witness as to acts preceeding the commission of the offense. Culton was put on the stand at 2 o'clock and said:

"I was present at a conference with Caleb Powers in Frankfort in January, at which the bringing of an armed body of men to Frankfort was discussed, and each man at the conference promised to bring from 50 to 200 men. Powers said that when the armed men got there they would settle the contest before the Legislature in thirty minutes or else kill the last damned one of them. About 1,000 armed men arrived in Frankfort on the morning of January 25th and stacked their guns in the office of State Commissioner of Agriculture. Henry Youtsey showed me what he said were some steel bullets, with smokeless powder. The plan, said he, was to kill Goebel out of the Secretary of State's office and never be found out; that it was the slickest scheme yet, as the blinds could be pulled down. Goebel could be killed by shooting out of the window, and the shooter could escape by a side door of the office and go on into the basement and never be seen.

"Dr. W. R. Johnson told Youtsey and me that he could kill Goebel with nitro-glycerine in his room at the hotel, and nobody would ever find out who did it. Governor Taylor, when told that Powers was about to send the armed men home from Frankfort January 25th, said to me:

"'Powers is a hot-headed fool. The men must not go away, as I will pay their expenses here.'

"Most of the men went away that night, but a good big number stayed in Frankfort. I took a message from Governor Taylor to Assistant Adjutant General Dixon a few days before Goebel was shot, to have the soldiers in the arsenal ready to move at a moment's notice. This was Friday or Saturday before the shooting."

Culton was asked to repeat a conversation he had with Youtsey about steel bullets after the shooting, but before the death of Senator Goebel, the State claiming that, as this was an indictment for conspiracy to kill, every act and word of the conspirators up to the time of death could be shown, even if it occurred after the shot was fired.

The court will pass on the question tomorrow morning.

The Bright-eyed and Clear-Voiced Old Man.

News and Observer.

Ex-Senator Ransom passed through Raleigh yesterday morning on his way home from Winston, where he spoke Tuesday.

"So far as I am able to judge from what I have seen and heard on this trip, the prospects for Democratic success are very bright," he said. The Democrats are aroused as I have seldom ever seen them, and I think I see a very great victory ahead of them."

Gen. Ransom is in fine health, and looking remarkably well. He is quick in his movements and straight as an Indian, bright-eyed and clear-voiced. So well preserved and vigorous is he that one would never guess him 74 years old.

His speech at Winston was a State affair. Next week he will make three speeches as follows: Goldsboro on Monday, Greensboro on Tuesday and Mooresville on Wednesday.

At all of these places preparations are being made for great crowds. Hon. Locke Craig will be with Mr. Ransom at Greensboro.

The Old Game of 1875.

News and Observer.

Here is an interesting piece of history that comes in timely. A gentleman in Robeson county writes:

"I see that our registrars are being arrested. It is the same game that they played in 1875 when they arrested our registrars, carried them to Wilmington and the United States Commissioners bound them over to appear before Judge Bond in the Federal court in Raleigh, under heavy bonds. Then they got a mandamus against them, and carried them before Judge Settle, at Greensboro, and they also arrested our editor here for libel, Col. W. F. French, who appeared in all these cases, says: 'We whipped them in every case and we made the convention Democratic and not Republican.'"

We Will Not Stop.

Lexington Dispatch

We will again say unto those who continue to write us threatening letters and also threatening to blow us up with gunpowder and dynamite unless we stop our work for white supremacy, to all such we say we cannot stop. We are doing right. You are doing wrong to threaten us and you are doing wrong in working against white supremacy. You would feel much better if you would cool off and come over on the side of the white people. Try this remedy and you will feel like a new man. It is a bad thing for a white man to oppose white supremacy. It makes a white man feel bad. It makes him threaten his neighbors and otherwise disorders his make-up. Come out for white supremacy. This is the only cure for such diseases.

Guilford O. K.

Winston Sentinel.

Prof. J. Allen Holt, of Oak Ridge, attended the mass meeting here yesterday. He remained over night, going home this morning. Prof. Holt reported Guilford all right and said the Democrats would carry the county by a good majority.

CATALOGUE OF A. AND M. COLLEGE.

We have the catalogue of A. and M. College for 1900. There are 302 students, of whom 136 paid for their education by money earned by themselves. Student work at the College during the year amounted to $2,076.96. It included carpentering, gardening, boiler-tending, dynamo-tending, machine-work, stock-feeding, wood-cutting, milking, plumbing, sweeping, shoemaking, teaching, farm-work, bell-ringing, trumpeting, well-cleaning, dining-room services and janitor's work.

The College includes (1) a high-grade technological department for the education of engineers, architects, chemists, electricians, agriculturists and horticulturists; (2) a manual training department for the training of skilled workmen in all lines of manual labor requiring skill.

The total expenses for pay students are $123 a year; for students holding scholarships, $93. Write to President Geo. T. Winston, Raleigh, N. C., for a catalogue.

FLOATING BUBBLES.

They Are Easily Made if You Have Gas Jets in the House.

In attempting to amuse my little sister and some of her friends, says a bright reader, I ran across something which I think the readers of the Children's Page would like to know of. The girls were blowing bubbles and were "tossing them off" when one said that she wished that they would float up." I thought we could manage that, so, by means of a piece of rubber tubing, I connected a pipe to the gas jet. By turning on the stop-cock I could blow gas bubbles which when "tossed off" floated upward to the ceiling. We varied this after a while by touching a lighted match or taper to the ascending bubbles. There would be a flash of flame which gradually would rise toward the top of the room, but would die out before reaching the ceiling. This is a very pretty and novel amusement, attended by no danger.

In making this generator he must be careful to wash the gas with caustic soda or potash, as otherwise it will not be easy to blow bubbles with it.

Adlai Stevenson, former Vice-President of the United States, says he much prefers the quiet life of a private citizen to politics.

After objecting to several designs submitted, Queen Wilhelmina of Holland declares herself satisfied with the latest portrait of herself, which is to adorn the coin of her kingdom. It is said to be a faithful likeness.

Youth and Love.

Youth and Love fell out one day.
Said Youth to Love: "I'll go away,
And leave you broken-hearted.
I'll go through life without your aid;
I'll neither gaze on man or maid."
And foolishly they parted.

Off went haughty Youth alone;
He hummed a tune in merry tone,
And never looked behind him;
While Love, at home, was sad and sore,
And longed for merry Youth once more.
Alas! she could not find him!

But Youth had not been walking long
Before he hushed his merry song—
His heart was full of sorrow.
He found it hard to stray away
From Love, of only for a day—
He came back on the morrow.

For Love and Youth apart would die,
Like flowers without dew or sky—
They'd fade if they would sever!
As long as there is tide and time,
In every land, in every clime,
Youth and Love will be together.
—Household Guest.

Why do we surpass others? Because we carry a large stock to select from of all the up-to-date Furniture, where you can at all times find just what you want at low prices. In fact our stock is so large and we sell so many goods that we have to employ good salesmen to wait on our trade. We are now selling at a sacrifice some fine goods we are overstocked in, such as Fancy Centre Tables, Handsome Chiffoniers, Beautiful Rockers and Baby Carriages and Go-Carts. We must close them out and now is the time for bargains. Call in and see if we cant interest you awhile in the Big Furniture Store, next door to the Express Office.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, O., prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had kept her awake every night. She tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE POET'S CORNER.

My Creed.

I have no faith; but this one fact I find,
That love is growing lovelier every day;
What we call sin is what it leaves behind;
What we call good attracts it on its way.

I have no hope; with God's love in my heart,
What is a selfish loss to care about?
If in the world I've played my little part,
Let him who lit the candle put it out.

I have no creed but love; is there a hell?
Where some poor tortured thing cries out in pain?
Then let me take his hand, and wish him well,
And wait, until he finds his heaven again.

ROSSETER WYE.

Secrets.

Blonde Charlotte's face is aquiline.
And Bess has features retrousse;
One has a smile like summershine,
Through which wee dimples peep and play.
Her eyes are gems so rare and pure
They put to blush the Kohinoor;
Withal, she's such a winsome witch,
It—well, no matter who or which.

When Charlotte dons her gown of gray
And Bess her jaunty suit of blue,
The two are fairer than the day
When June is ripened through and through.
And one is sweeter than the blooms
That pout without her curtained rooms;
They pout, no doubt, because their lot,
Keeps them so far from—tell I'll not!

Dear Lot and Bess are young and gay
And keep my 'wildered wits awhirl;
I know not how to break away
From one and court the other girl.
For each has charms hard to resist.
And each seems fashioned to be kissed.
At least, 'twere rapture to caress
That rare coquette—"Which?" You must guess.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for yeasr by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, rundown people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina: Generally fair tonight and Friday, light to fresh southwest winds.

Highest temperature at Greensboro past twenty-four hours ending eight o'clock this morning 94, lowest 73.

HOW IS IT WITH YOU?

Have You Registered for the Coming Election?—Only Two Days Left.

Only two more days in which to register.

The 5-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs Charles D. McIver is critically ill.

A number of wandering horse traders are camped out on South Buffalo.

Greensboro Council No. 13, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

Only those who have registered will be allowed to vote in the coming State and county election.

Six blooded horses are in training at Vanstory's race track. There are some good steppers among the lot.

Every white man who has not done so is urged to register before sunset Saturday, when it will be too late.

A new engine is being placed in the basement of the Southern Loan and Trust Company building to furnish increased power.

Rev. Dr. P. L. Groome will deliver his lecture on "Travels in Palestine" in the Methodist church at Proximity tomorrow night.

A box car jumped the track at the depot today about the time the northbound train came in at 12:23. No damage was done.

A falling window this afternoon badly mashed three fingers of Annie Lee, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clymer. The bones were broken.

Keystone Council No. 81, Jr. O. U. A. M., will give an ice cream supper and lawn party at Proximity Saturday night. An address will be delivered by some well known member of the order.

Messrs. Lee S. Overman, William A. Gutherie and Ed. W. Pou will speak in Burlington on Tuesday, the 31st, at a big Democratic barbecue. A big horse-back procession is being arranged for.

Reports from the country indicate that an immense crowd will attend the Democratic rally and basket picnic in Greensboro next Tuesday. The magic names of Ransom and Craig will draw the people.

Only tomorrow and Saturday remain for registration for the coming election. It is well to bear this in mind and see to it that your name is on the book. If you do not register you cannot vote.

Messrs. R. J. Reynolds, J. C. Buxton, J. S. Cobb and several other Winston gentlemen will come down Saturday and join a crowd from Greensboro for a big fish fry at Hamburg.

Mr. J. Henry Phipps is making some improvements on his house which will make it one of the handsomest residences on that side of town. He has built an addition and extended the porch around the house, which is now in the hands of the painters.

Cured of Appendicitis.

Recently Otto Hopper met John Williams in a Brooklyn saloon. Williams wished to enjoy himself convivially because he expected to die in a few weeks from appendicitis. Invitations to drink were exchanged. The two men arranged a game of cards. A quarrel ensued and Hopper drew a knife. With a vicious stroke he thrust at William's abdomen and buried the knife to the hilt.

"He's killed me!" yelled Williams, falling to the floor.

But Hopper had not killed him. He had saved his life instead. An ambulance took Williams to the Eastern District Hospital.

"I haven't a ghost of a show," Williams told the doctors. "It's no use. I was dying from appendicitis, anyway, so it doesn't count."

He was laid on the operating table and the doctors examined the wound. They found that the cut was clean and straight. It had entered exactly at the right point, had neatly severed the vermiform appendix, and all that was necessary was to tie up the intestine, apply an antiseptic, and put Williams to bed. He has recovered.

Want a new trunk for your summer trip? We have them large and small, with roller trays, at all sorts of prices, some very handsome large size ones at $9.50 to $13 50.
